8th March 2018

Annual Log 2017 - 2018

Distinguished Chief Guest of the College day, Dr. D. SaralaThambavani, Regional Joint Director of Collegiate Education Tirunelveli, Eminent and illustrious Guests of Honour, the Iron Lady, Mrs. Irom Sharmila, Civil Rights & Political Activist and Poet, Manipur and Revered Mr. Desmond Anthony Bellarmine, Dear well-wishers, Reverend Fathers, Sisters, Dear Parents, Members of the Teaching and Non Teaching faculty, I greet you all on this joyous occasion of St. Mary's College celebrating its 70th College Day. As we reflect on the glorious path this great institution has travelled so far, I would like to place on record the Marian Flash 2017-2018 highlighting some of the significant feats achieved during this academic year.

St. Mary's College holds a rich academic and spiritual heritage as a Christian minority institution for the past seven decades and has made its mark, right from its inception, in empowering women in their march towards excellence. The institution is committed to the noble cause of liberating young women, especially the ones belonging to coastal areas and preparing them to assume leading roles in making societal changes. The committed service of the institution has earned St. Mary's a significant regional recognition.

Founded in the year 1948, with just 21 students, St. Mary's College has grown multifold in its 70-years of Jubilant Journey nurturing at present around 3200 students. We are proud that the college today is equipped with the best of faculty, infrastructure and systems to support its mission to teach and train women to be socially sensitive and globally competitive. We feel happy that St. Mary's lives up to the lofty vision of the founders in making the young women as agents of an egalitarian society through liberative education.

The 70th College Day celebration of St. Mary's College (Autonomous) commemorates the institution's magnificent glory in its 70-year journey. The 70th Jubilee Year 2017-2018 is commemorated as the Year of Joy. The administrative team backed up by Dr. Sr. Jessie Fdo, Secretary, Dr. Sr. Alphonse Roseline Mary, Principal, Dr. Sr. Arockia Jenecius Alphonse, Vice Principal, Rev. Sr. Peregrina Mary, Director of Self Supportive courses, Dr. Dulcy Elizabeth, Controller of Examinations have led the institution in all its great endeavours in the arena of education.

The College has successfully completed 9 years of Autonomy and has been revamped with the introduction of new School systems like School of Biological Sciences, School of Language and Culture, School of Management and Economics, School of Physical and Computing Sciences. The Deans ensure that the School System in St. Mary's functions effectively furthering future progress.

The Vice principals of various disciplines monitor the discipline and decorum of the Marian family. The Research forum has created a platform to promote the scope for research and consultancy in St. Mary's. The IQAC ensures that the institution is progressing in a qualitative manner in accordance with the precepts set by the UGC. Centres for Excellence escorted by its Directors, enable the institution to compete in the sphere of education and employment.

St.Mary's gratefully remembers the dedicated service of Dr. L. Thilagarani, Head and Associate Professor of Economics, Mrs. A.A. Maria Celine, Head and Associate Professor of Commerce for their dedication to the institution for over three decades. The institution acknowledges the sincere service of Mr. D. Antony Charles, Senior Grade Record Clerk for his 30 years of service to the institution. The Management and the Marian family acknowledge their committed contributions to the institution and wish them a happy and peaceful life.

The institution heartily congratulates the doctoral honours received by Dr. Fernando Alexandria, Associate Professor of Commerce, Dr. L. Jacquiline Leo, Associate Professor of English, Rev. Dr. Sr. A. Maria Shanthi Assistant Professor of Tamil, Dr. S. Theresammal, Assistant Professor of History, Dr. Amala Jothi Grace, Assistant Professor of Chemistry, Dr. G. Priscilla Pacifica, Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Dr. B. Joys Selva Mary, Assistant Professor of Microbiology, Dr. T. Chandra, Assistant Professor of Tamil, Dr. P. Anbarasi Rodrigo, Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Dr. Annie Devotta, Assistant Professor of Commerce, Dr. Maria Jenifer Thaya, Assistant Professor of History and Dr. E. Centre for Eco Feminine Excellence

Being eco-friendly is not only a social responsibility of the corporate, but also of all education institutes. It is important for the institutions to go green not only from the point of view of protecting the environment but also from teaching the youth the importance of maintaining ecological balance and ensuring sustainable development. The mission of this centre is to offer women a new way to care for themselves, beyond personal health. We invest our knowledge, time and resources to create awareness among the students to use eco friendly materials, maintain cleanliness, health and hygiene through the Centre for Eco feminine Excellence.

Women, having blessed with the gift of reproducing and creating new life possess the inborn feminine principles of caring, sustaining, nurturing and preserving life. The centre aims at utilizing the energy and power of the young women to create a balance between creation and depletion of resources and strives to prohibit the usage of hazardous elements in and around the campus
